TESTIMONIAL

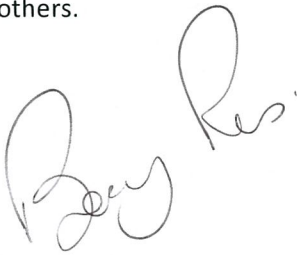

Australian Finance Group Limited (AFG) is one of Australia's largest mortgage broking groups and one of the country's leaders when it comes to financial solutions.

The Queensland office of AFG had occupied its previous premises for over 16 years and finally it was time to move but with a small team of busy people it was important that we found the right fit out company to make this move as easy as possible as we had little experience in this area.

While we are a small office it is important to us to have a space that is professional, attractive, and comfortable and practical for staff.

Future Fitouts was very competitively priced, but were also professional and comprehensive in its approach, so it was an easy decision to choose Future Fitouts over the other offerings. This first impression of professionalism was borne out in our subsequent dealings with Aaron and the team where requests were responded to promptly and nothing was too much trouble.

Should the opportunity arise again (which hopefully won't be for some years yet!) we would be very happy to employ the services of Future Fitouts again and we would certainly recommend them to others.
